

HEIDELBERG SUITES

Heidelberg Suites Baden-Württemberg, Germany

By Gary Marshall

Nestled upon the shore of the Neckar River, as it flows through the town of Heidelberg and out to the famous Rhine, Heidelberg Suites facilitates a truly immersive cultural experience. The small German town is steeped in history, with its many bridges, churches, arches and museums all emerging from a long, but not forgotten, past. The setting was once the centre for German Romanticism, and when taking in the rich European architecture, surrounded by the lush green rural landscape, it's easy to see why. This turn of the century hotel brings you into that world. It makes you feel a part of its past, while providing a comforting look into its future.

A 45 minute drive south of Frankfurt brings you to Heidelberg, and into the historic world of Heidelberg Suites. One glance at the building's exterior and you will be convinced you are about to experience something special. Elegant up lighting on the ancient façade gives it a desirable old world mood by night. And beautifully manicured gardens and old style bicycles in the courtyard make you feel at home by day. The scene is elegantly set from the outside, but it's the historic decorations and furniture from another time inside that is the icing on the cake.

Each of the hotel's many suites afford a magnificent juxtaposition between a modern experience inside and ancient history outside. It's arresting. There are several formats for accommodation, with each maximising the location to provide views of both the Old Town and the cities central castle. This ensures the romance of Heidelberg is not lost once you return to your hotel. Modern comforts include iPod docking stations, flat screen TVs and wireless internet. This is complimented by generous glass showers, inviting armchairs and, in the Penthouse, your own private Jacuzzi.

Exploring the immediate vicinity of the hotel grounds is a lovely way to kick off your stay. The suitably named Philosopher's Walk takes you on a magical journey directly behind the hotel. You can do this on foot, or take one of the complimentary bicycles, for the perfect couple's day out. Going further afield is also easy, with a nearby bridge that connects you to the Old Town, a must for any visitor. And once you have explored the depths of the town, you may want to spend some time in the hotel's very own vineyard, which is put to great use through private picnics and wine tasting.

With this much to see and do surrounding you, it's no wonder that a modern day spa has been brought into the mix. As there is so much history to explore, topping off your day with a Shiatsu, Ayurveda or a Duo Massage will be more than welcoming. And if you like to be in total control of your unwind time, head to the roof top terrace where, as darkness sets in, the city takes on a majestically gothic appearance. Perfect for pre-dinner drinks or a late night cuddle.

A life without romance is a life wasted. If you're looking for it, or wanting to recapture it, here is your destination. Heidelberg provides all the necessary ingredients for the perfect setting, and Heidelberg Suites puts you at the heart of that experience and ensures you have to tools to make the most of it. The location is set. The rest is up to you.
